F	General remarks of the German mission for submittal of a Schengen visa application
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The German Missions reserve the right to ask for additional documents. ➤ Submission of the above-mentioned documents does not guarantee that a visa is granted. ➤ Submission of incomplete documentation may result in the rejection of an application. The visa section is not obliged to ask for submittal of documents already mentioned on this list before denying an application. ➤ Applications have to be submitted not earlier than six months before and not later than 15 working days before the intended date of travel. ➤ Applications are processed within 15 working days from the day of arrival at the visa section. When submitting your application via VFS application center, please keep in mind that the visa application will need up to two working days to reach the visa section. Public holidays of the German missions as announced on our website will not count as working days. ➤ Please note that individual status inquiries cannot be answered within the standard processing time of 15 working days. ➤ A booked flight ticket does not result in a preferred processing of the application. ➤ All documents, forms and declarations have to be submitted either in German or English. All documents, forms and declarations not in German or English have to be submitted with proper German or English translation. Failing to provide proper translation will result in the document, form or declaration considered “missing”
G	Special remarks of the German mission for submittal of a Schengen visa application in the respective category
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ A fellowship (German translation: Hospitation) is only allowed for observational purposes and is legally not considered as “work”. Detailed information as described under B) is required to determine if this requirement is met or if the legal purpose of the trip is an internship. Failing to provide proper and complete information may result in a denial of the application due to missing proof of travel purpose. Please note that it might have legal consequences for the applicant as well as the hosting institution in Germany if proper permits especially of the Federal Employment Agency are not obtained. ➤ Internships are generally considered as “work” and require special approvals of the Federal Employment Agency (Bundesagentur für Arbeit) in Germany also for short term stays ➤ The (Pre-)approval of the Federal Employment Agency (Einvernehmen und / oder Zustimmung der Bundesagentur für Arbeit) has to be obtained by the hosting company / institution directly at the Federal Employment Agency and has to be presented when submitting the visa application. The visa section cannot apply for these documents. ➤ Exemptions of the requirement of a (pre-)approval of the Federal Employment Agency may apply for internships of students in connection with their study in India if they <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Either have already obtained an academic degree (Bachelor, Master or PhD or equivalent in case of a foreign degree) and are doing a research internship at a German university or an acknowledged or public research institute (please apply for a guest scientist visa in that case)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Or if they will be enrolled at a university in Germany for the duration of the stay in Germany (proper confirmation of the enrollment have to be submitted with the application) ➤ Exemption of the requirement of a (pre-)approval of the Federal Employment Agency may also apply for internships for skilled workers or managers organized by GIZ ➤ The regular Schengen visa fees apply. Recipients of public German scholarships from the inviting institution may be exempt from the visa fee if detailed information about the scholarship (amount, expenses covered, funding of the scholarship) are provided with the application. Failing to provide the required details when submitting the application will result in the visa fees being charged. The visa section is legally not obliged to reimburse the visa fees if the necessary documentation is submitted later. ➤ Accompanying family members have to apply for tourist visas
